*Sunday June 25 Old-Fashioned Hymn Sing

On June 25th, we will sing hymns you choose! By June 4, let me know which hymns you like to sing. They don't need to be in the hymnal, but if you have a specific tune in mind, please let me know. I'll accommodate as many requests as possible. Talk to me in church or contact Jon.

This is also the day we begin our summer worship time at 9:30 AM

*Graduate Sunday – Always a Fun Day!

*Sophie receiving her congregation gift and scholarship; with her confirmation mentor and family.
Thanks for pics Gloria.*

UCF IN THE WORLD

Sunday, June 4 The Lord's Supper and Remembering Those Who Experience Food Insecurity

We can make contributions to the F-M Food Pantry at any time, but as we gather at the Table to be fed by the Lord, it is an especially good time to remembering those who do not have basic sustenance. Current needs include: Cereal, Pasta, Spaghetti Sauce, Canned Fruit, Canned Vegetables, Canned Beans. Consider sharing the bounty of the Table with the bounty of our tables.

HOUSEKEEPING

Flowers from Your Gardens for the Communion Table

As the earth bursts into bloom, consider signing up for a Sunday to provide flowers and bring the gifts of your garden. The sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board adjacent to the office.

THIS WEEK'S THANKS

*Gail S. (shopping for congregational graduate gifts), Barb M. for mentoring Sophie, and the Memorials Committee for finding a way to offer a scholarship.

*John H. for placing black ribbon on our flag pole, the "short flag poler means" for honoring those who sacrificed and are remembered in Memorial Day.

*Dave B., who power washed the benches out front; and Dick G. for helping with the transportation.

Before

After

*The Worship and Spiritual Life Committee for decorating for Pentecost and then re-decorating the Sanctuary as we return to "Ordinary Time." Thanks as always, to Gloria for all the pics.
